Second Sunday after Pentecost
The Holy Spirit Sustaining the Church

_Old Testament: Jeremiah 7:1-11_ (NRSV)
1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 12Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah, you that enter these gates to worship the LORD. 3Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Amend your ways and your doings, and let me dwell with you in this place. 4Do not trust in these deceptive words: “This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD,” 5For if you truly amend your ways and your doings, if you truly act justly one with another, 6If you do not oppress the alien, the orphan, and the widow, or shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not go after other gods to your own hurt, 7Then I will dwell with you in this place, in the land that I gave of old to your ancestors forever and ever. 8Here you are, trusting in deceptive words to no avail. 9Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, make offerings to Baal, and go after other gods that you have not known, 10And then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, “We are safe!”—only to go on doing all these abominations? 11Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your sight? You know, I too am watching, says the LORD.

13But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you lock people out of the kingdom of heaven. For you do not go in yourselves, and when others are going in, you stop them. 14Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites. For you devour widows’ houses, and for pretense make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation. 15Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cross sea and land to make a single convert, and you make the new convert twice as much a child of hell as yourselves. 18Woe to you, blind guides, who say, “Whoever swears by the sanctuary is bound by nothing, but whoever swears by the gold of the sanctuary is bound by the oath.” 17You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold or the sanctuary that has made the gold sacred? 18And you say, “Whoever swears by the altar is bound by nothing, but whoever swears by the gift that is on the altar is bound by the oath.” 19How blind you are! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift sacred? 20So whoever swears by the altar, swears by it and by everything on it; 21And whoever swears by the sanctuary, swears by it and by the one who dwells in it; 22And whoever swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by the one who is seated upon it. 23Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, dill, and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith. It is these you ought to have practiced without neglecting the others. 24You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel! 25Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. 26You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup, so that the outside also may become clean.
27 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside look beautiful, but inside they are full of the bones of the dead and of all kinds of filth. 28 So you also on the outside look righteous to others, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

General Concept: The Holy Spirit bids the church to unite with the people to confront the oppressive powers.

Key Concepts in the Different Age Levels in Sunday School
N/K/YE: The Holy Spirit helps the church in uniting its people to do what is right.
ME/OE: The Holy Spirit helps the church in uniting its people to do what is right.
Y: The Holy Spirit bids the church to unite with the people to confront the oppressive powers.
A: The Holy Spirit bids the church to unite with the people to confront the oppressive powers.

Exegesis of the Biblical References
The Hebrew word used for "amend" in verse 3 is eitibu and is transliterated as "make good you". Verses 1-4 is an admonition from God to the Israelites to make amends or do what is good for them to stay in the Promised Land. This is to warn them from falling back to the false security that God will protect the temple.

In verse 5, God encouraged the Israelites to "amend" (Hebrew eitib - make good) and in verse 6 provided concrete ways to do good. To do good is not to oppress or extort the orphan, the widows and the foreigner. The innocent is not to be harmed, blood is not to be shed and people should not to go to other gods.

This is what God is saying through Jeremiah: that the Israelites should not depend on being the chosen people as represented by Solomon's temple. They must be faithful to Yahweh and do what is good and right. Doing good out of faithfulness and obedience to God allows one to remain in the place God has given them or else they will be cut off as the temple itself has become a den of robbers instead of a place that gives glory to God.

The phrase "woe to you" is pretty dominant in the selected verse. Its transliteration is exactly the same "woe to you" (Greek ouaihumin). This shows the phrase has been retained in its original translation all throughout the years to show the seriousness of Jesus' message to those who commit all these atrocities. Hypocrites (Greek hupokritai) are defined as a pretender and actor, stage player. This shows that Jesus was against all pretense of religiosity which the scribes and the Pharisees seem to embody. These people are much more concerned of showing holiness to others.

Aside from the scribes and Pharisees, blind guides are given the "woe to you" admonition. Because they are giving more weight to the oath given to the gold than to the altar. This implies that the gold is more important or valued than the altar which is hypocritical since it is the altar as God’s representation that makes the oath holy, not the economic value of the gold.

From the text it is very clear that Jesus had strong words against those who are hypocrites. Despite all their religiosity and aim for purity (they could have been the ones Jesus could have been closest to but it is the opposite), their rules and regulations became obstacles for people to reach God. The point is to make God closer to the people but because of their hypocrisy it only alienated the people away from God. And this alienation is what Jesus was most incensed about towards the scribes and the Pharisees.

Exegeting both texts from Jeremiah and Matthew, it becomes quite clear that no religious sanctuary and regulation can make us secure and holy. It is hypocritical for us to make ourselves holy in our own terms. Only God can make people holy through the Holy Spirit. The Spirit encourages and empowers us to make amends or do good. And doing good includes going against oppressive powers that bring so much evil and suffering. If the church is doing oppressive practices, then it becomes a den of robbers. We are to heed God’s message as revealed in Jeremiah and Matthew not to be hypocrites and do what is good.

Doing God's work is not only limited to the church. God's Spirit is always working even outside the boundaries of the church. It is then right to work with people even outside the church to go against oppressive powers for this is still part of God's ministry.
Nursery/Kindergarten/Younger Elementary Levels

I. Objectives
   At the end of the session, the learners are expected to:
   1. tell how the Holy Spirit helps the members of the church to do what is right;
   2. explain how young children respond to God by doing what is right; and
   3. demonstrate one’s resolve to do what is pleasing to God.

II. Concept: The Holy Spirit helps the church in uniting its people to do what is right.
    Materials: The Holy Bible (NRSV), offering plate, worksheets

III. Learning Experiences
    A. Opening Worship
       1. Welcome time
       2. Opening prayer: “Loving God, we thank you for being in our class today. As young children, help us to know your Word and follow it. In Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.”
       3. Opening song: “When the Spirit of the Lord Is in Our Heart”
          When the Spirit of the Lord is in our heart, we can sing like Mary sang (twice).
          We can sing oh, Lord (twice). We can sing like Mary sang. (repeat this line)
          When the Spirit of the Lord is in our heart, we can lead like Moses led (twice).
          We can lead oh, Lord (twice). We can lead like Moses led. (repeat this line)
          When the Spirit of the Lord is in our heart, we can pray like Daniel prayed (twice).
          We can pray oh, Lord (twice). We can pray like Daniel prayed. (repeat this line)
          When the Spirit of the Lord is in our heart, we can dance like Miriam danced (twice).
          We can dance oh, Lord (twice). We can dance like Miriam danced. (repeat this line)
    B. Getting Ready
       1. Prepare the class to play the game “Unseen Faith” game (http://www.kidssunday school.com/). Use these materials: an old glove marked with F E A R on each knuckle, 2 empty plastic water bottles.
       2. Take two empty plastic water bottles. Cap one bottle and do not cap the other bottle. Put on the glove and let the class read the word written on the glove. Talk about fear and let the class tell some things that make them afraid. On a table crash each bottle using the glove. Ask: Was fear successful in crashing the uncapped bottle? Was fear successful in crashing the capped bottle? Tell the children that the capped bottle represents a person with faith and the uncapped bottle represents a person that has no faith. Help them to realize that our faith in God will help us in times of fear, sorrow, anger, or depression.
       3. Lead them to say that “we cannot see faith itself, but what faith produces we can see quite easily, such as strength, courage, peace of mind, and self-control. We do not need to worry or be afraid of anything when we have faith in Jesus.” Remind them that the Holy Spirit will help us experience this.
    C. Learning Time
       Tell the story.

Jesus Talks about Scribes and Pharisees
   (Based on Matthew 23:13-28)
   Jesus spoke to his disciples and other people. The scribes and Pharisees were there, too, to listen. Jesus spoke about humble service to others. He said that serving others is more important than appearances. God does not want the clothes we wear or the kind of house where we live to keep us from serving God.
Jesus also said that humble service is more pleasing to God than being recognized by what a person does. When we serve others, we show our thankfulness and gratitude to God.

D. Deepening Activity/Sharing Time

1. N/K: Discuss the things that the church has taught the children about doing what is right.
   a. Sharing food to classmates
   b. Helping a new classmate look for the comfort room
   c. Sharing one's Bible to a classmate
   d. Telling good things about a classmate
   e. Listening to a friend tell his or her story

2. YE: Ask these questions.
   a. What does God look in us, our clothes or our sharing of clothes to the needy?
   b. Which is right, giving food to homeless children or ignoring homeless children?
   c. Which is right, helping or ignoring a single mother who requests you to play with her kid while she shops in the grocery store?
   d. What does God want to see in us, being honored for the things we do or helping others even if we are not recognized?

E. Discovering the Biblical Truth

   Ask: “Who helps the church to teach its members to do what is right?” (The Holy Spirit helps the church in uniting its people to do what is right.)

F. Applying the Biblical Truth

   Tell the class to list some acts that show God’s love to others at home, in school, and in the church. Emphasize that these simple acts show kindness to others and to strangers so that we can offer them love and hope to build the church and the Kingdom of God. After the discussion, help the children to realize how hard it truly can be for them. Let them see that although it is a difficult task to show love for others, God is pleased with them for doing the right thing. Provide coloring sheets that show acts of love and ask the N/K children to color using crayons and the YE children to use water color or water soluble paint.

G. Closing Worship

1. Offering
2. Recall songs that show acts of love or kindness to others.
3. Closing Prayer: “Dear God, thank you for our teachers in church for teaching us to do what is right in order to please God. May the Holy Spirit remind us to do this always. In Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.”
Middle and Older Elementary Levels

I. Objectives
At the end of the session, the learners are expected to:
1. tell how the Holy Spirit helps the members of the church to do what is right;
2. explain how Christians live their lives for God and respond to God by doing what is right; and
3. demonstrate one’s commitment to do humble service to others as this is pleasing to God.

II. Concept: The Holy Spirit helps the church in uniting its people to do what is right.
Materials: The Holy Bible (NRSV), offering plate, song chart, verse chart, crayons, white cartolina (or manila paper, craft paper, or any material that could be used for the Story Map Reading)

III. Learning Experiences
A. Opening Worship
1. Welcome time: Smile and greet the children as they come. Check the attendance.
2. Opening prayer: “Loving God, we thank you for being in our class today. As young children, help us to know your Word and follow it. In Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.”
3. Opening song: “When the Spirit of the Lord Is in Our Heart”
   When the Spirit of the Lord is in our heart, we can sing like Mary sang (twice).
   We can sing oh, Lord (twice). We can sing like Mary sang. (repeat this line)
   When the Spirit of the Lord is in our heart, we can lead like Moses led (twice).
   We can lead oh, Lord (twice). We can lead like Moses led. (repeat this line)
   When the Spirit of the Lord is in our heart, we can pray like Daniel prayed (twice).
   We can pray oh, Lord (twice). We can pray like Daniel prayed. (repeat this line)
   When the Spirit of the Lord is in our heart, we can dance like Miriam danced (twice).
   We can dance oh, Lord (twice). We can dance like Miriam danced. (repeat this line)

B. Getting Ready
1. Prepare the class to play the game “Unseen Faith” game (http://www.kidssunday school.com/). Use these materials: an old glove marked with F E A R on each knuckle, 2 empty plastic water bottles.
2. Take two empty plastic water bottles. Cap one bottle and do not cap the other bottle. Put on the glove and let the class read the word written on the glove. Talk about fear and let the class tell some things that make them afraid. On a table crash each bottle using the glove. Ask: Was fear successful in crashing the uncapped bottle? Was fear successful in crashing the capped bottle? Tell the children that the capped bottle represents a person with faith and the uncapped bottle represents a person that has no faith. Help them to realize that our faith in God will help us in times of fear, sorrow, anger, or depression.
3. Lead them to say that “we cannot see faith itself, but what faith produces we can see quite easily, such as strength, courage, peace of mind, and self-control. We do not need to worry or be afraid of anything when we have faith in Jesus.” Remind them that the Holy Spirit will help us experience this.

C. Learning Time
1. Tell the class to read the Scriptural passages in unison. Assist the class to realize the following:
   a. Jeremiah cries to God’s people to amend their ways so that God will give them the land where they live.
b. Matthew talks about what Jesus dislikes among the scribes and Pharisees—hypocrisy.
c. Common to the two references is the need to live one’s life for God in order to build the church and God’s kingdom though the intervention of the Holy Spirit.
d. Children have their own desires for material possessions but as Christians, we should give them up and instead submit fully to God’s will—service to others.

D. Deepening Activity/Sharing Time
Discuss the lesson.

1. What wrong things did God’s people do? (Jeremiah 7:5-6, 8-9)
2. Why did Jeremiah want God’s people to amend their ways? (Jeremiah 7:7)
3. Why did Jesus call the scribes and Pharisees hypocrites? (They are more concerned on appearances and recognition instead of doing true and humble service to others.)
5. Why should we live our lives for God? (God is our Creator and Savior. He loves us and will make all things work out for the good of everyone.)
6. Why is living for God so difficult? (Human beings are selfish and they want to live for themselves.)
7. What can happen to us when we live our lives for God? (Living our lives for God will glorify God. The presence of God will remain with us.)

E. Discovering the Biblical Truth
Ask: “Who helps the church to teach its members to do what is right?” (The Holy Spirit helps the church in uniting its people to do what is right.)

F. Applying the Biblical Truth
Let the class do the following:

1. ME: Tell the class to do the “Following God” artwork: Discuss how to follow God by using their footprints that will show their hope in God wherever they go. Prepare a large sheet of paper where all the children can walk through. Tell the class to put some paint on their feet’s sole. Each child will have different color. Let the children walk through the paper and clean their feet as soon as they finish walking. Let dry the paper and hang it for the class to see. Encourage the class to say that their footprints show that they follow God wherever they go in life.

2. OE: Tell the class to play the game “Live for God”. The aim of this game is for the class to realize that in order to live for God, they need to be Christ-like. Their lives should mirror the life of Jesus Christ. Divide the class into triads. One member is the leader who will show acts of love or service to others. Another member is the follower who will mirror what the leader does. The third member is the judge who will evaluate what the mirror did. Let each member of the triad switch roles until each member is able to play all the roles. After the activity, each child will say that in life we should try to be like a mirror of Jesus’ life by doing what He did.

G. Closing Worship

1. Offering
2. Recall songs that show acts of love or kindness to others.
3. Closing Prayer: “Dear God, thank you for our teachers in church for teaching us to do what is right in order to please God. May God, through the Holy Spirit, watch over us and remind us to serve others always. In Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.”
Youth Level

I. Objectives

At the end of the session, the learners are expected to:

1. define the words phylacteries, hypocrisy, and woe operationally
2. describe the evil things done by the Israelites during the time of Jeremiah and the solution proposed by Jeremiah;
3. compare the wrong doings of the Jews during Jeremiah and Jesus’ times;
4. explain the role of the Holy Spirit in helping unify the members of the Church in order to combat oppressive powers; and
5. demonstrate one’s commitment to do what is pleasing to God.

II. Concept: The Holy Spirit bids the church to unite with the people to confront the oppressive powers.

Materials: The Holy Bible (NRSV), worksheets

III. Learning Experiences

A. Opening Worship

1. Welcome time
2. Opening prayer: “Gracious God, we thank you for giving us the opportunity to learn about your Word. We recall how the Triune God created us and gave a unique purpose for our lives. Be with us as we to study and analyze your purpose for each of us. This is our prayer in your Son’s name. Amen.”
3. Opening song: “Living for Jesus” (HFJ # 289) stanzas 1 and 2

B. Getting Ready

Tell the class to do some dictionary work and find the meaning of the following words. Tell the class to compare the dictionary work with the given operational meaning of the words.

1. Phylacteries. These are small boxes that contain written verses from the Scriptures. These boxes are worn by the Jews on their foreheads or arms (Deuteronomy 6:6-8). Aside from the phylacteries, the Jews also put tassels on the borders or hems of their clothes in remembrance of God’s laws (Numbers 15:38-40.)

2. Hypocrisy. A commentator describes the word hypocrite, in Greek means “play actor.” Moreover, a hypocrite is someone pretending to be something that he or she is not in order to receive recognition or gain. Hypocrisy is a result of pride. Humble followers of God seek to live according to His laws because they love God and other people—not because they will be recognized or honored for it. When it is pointed out that a humble follower of God is in the wrong, he or she immediately works toward doing what is right. The hypocrite seeks to cover sins and make excuses for them.

3. Woe. This word refers to sorrow and suffering. This word was mentioned eight times in Matthew 23 spoken by Jesus to admonish the scribes, Pharisees, and hypocrites. The term woe expresses pity due to imminent punishment

C. Learning Time

1. Divide the class into two groups and assign each group to read Jeremiah 7:1-11 or Matthew 23:13-28. Ask each group to say what they have in mind after reading the passages.
2. After letting the class report about their observations, provide the following additional information to elucidate the passages.
   a. Jeremiah 7:1-11. God used Jeremiah to warn God’s people who became dependent on their material possessions for their safety and security rather than depending on God.
1) They lived a life of sin because they were overconfident that God would still save them and their Temple. They did not realize that God’s will take precedence over everything.

2) Jeremiah was asked to “stand in the gate” and proclaim God’s warning and Jeremiah cried to the people to amend their ways.

3) Jeremiah spoke about what God will do to them if they remain in sin and how God will reward them if they turn to God. Jeremiah concluded that if the stiff-necked Jews get right with God, they will find that God’s will is the only true safe place.

b. Matthew 23:13-28. Jesus declared sorrow and suffering to the scribes, Pharisees, and hypocrites who were listening to him.

Woe # 1 (v. 13) Woe to those who shut up the kingdom.
Woe # 2 (v. 14) Woe to the religious leaders who steal from the vulnerable.
Woe # 3 (v. 15) Woe to the religious leaders who led their converts on the wrong path.

Woe # 4 (vv. 16-22) Woe to the religious leaders who made false and deceptive oaths Woe # 5 (vv. 23-24) Woe to the religious leaders who are obsessed with trivialities, and ignoring the weighty matters.
Woe # 6 (vv. 25-26) Woe to the religious leaders who are impure both inside and out.
Woe # 7 (vv. 27-28) Woe to the religious leaders who have the appearance of good, but without spiritual life in the inner man.

D. Deepening Activity/Sharing Time
Discuss the lesson and ask these questions:

1. How did God use the prophet Jeremiah? What was God’s message to God’s people? (Jeremiah was God’s instrument in warning God’s people to amend their ways because God is displeased with them)

2. How can Jeremiah’s warning become useful in today’s life of Christians? (The Word of God remains unchanged and it is still the safest way to mend our evil ways.)

3. What is God’s reward to people who remain faithful to God’s word and will? (They will have the security of life as sustained by the Holy Spirit’s presence.) Are the phrases: Return to me or Come back to me fitting to describe the unchanging heart of God towards God’s people? Why or why not? (Yes)

4. What are the seven woes spoken by Jesus? Instruct the pupils to read the woes one by one and paraphrase the descriptions made by Jesus and tell what can happen to anyone who remains a hypocrite.

5. What are the ministries of the church that can prevent sorrow and suffering of its members when they are in the midst of oppression?

E. Discovering the Biblical Truth
Ask: How can the church confront the oppressive powers? (The Holy Spirit bids the church to unite with the people to confront the oppressive powers done by leaders, both religious and otherwise.)

F. Applying the Biblical Truth
As youth workers in your local church, what ways can you do to achieve the following?

1. Maintain a good relationship with God and must carry a heart of service. (Make a self-denial posture where you serve others before yourself. Surrender absolutely to God by accepting the plans He made for you and to promise to abide by these rules.)

2. Be obedient to the Triune God. (When called, always answer God with “Here I am, Lord.” Work for God without having excuses or postponements. Trust that God, through the intervention of the Holy Spirit paves the way for all our undertakings. Live a Christ-like life and remember that God will not let us down. Believe that God has begun to work in you and will sustain you up to its completion.)

3. Be prayerful as a way of life. (Read and meditate God’s word. Pray for understanding and guidance. Focus on your mission to serve.)

G. Closing Worship
1. Offering
2. Closing song: “Living for Jesus” (HFJ # 289) stanzas 3 and 4
3. Closing prayer: “Compassionate God, we thank you for giving us the opportunity to work for you by serving others. With your Spirit guiding and to sustaining us, we want to live a life that is pleasing to you. In Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.”

   C. Learning Time
      1. Tell the class to read in unison Jeremiah 7:1-11.
      2. Divide the class into seven groups and assign the groups to read and analyze the seven woes spoken of by Jesus in Matthew 23:13-18.
         a. Group 1: (v. 13) Woe to the religious leaders who keep people out of God's kingdom.
         b. Group 2: (v. 14) Woe to the religious leaders who take advantage of widows.
c. Group 3: (v. 15) Woe to the religious leaders who mislead men into eternal destruction.
d. Group 4: (vv. 16-22) Woe to the religious leaders who are covetous of worldly things.
e. Group 5: (vv. 23-24) Woe to the religious leaders who refuse to show compassion. Woe to religious leaders who care to tithe but ignore the important things of the law: justice, mercy, and faith.
f. Group 6: (vv. 25-26) Woe to the religious leaders who are inwardly corrupt.
g. Group 7: (vv. 27-28) Woe to the religious leaders who afflict the righteous with good appearance but without inner spiritual life.

D. Deepening Activity/Sharing Time

1. Ask the class to comment on Jeremiah 7:1-11 on the following points.
   a. The sending of Jeremiah by God to warn God's people
   b. The declaration of the sins committed by God's people
   c. The consequences of this sin and the reward for returning to God
   d. The similarity of this situation in today's world

2. Ask each of the seven groups to present their report by reading the assigned verses aloud. Then let them say in their own words what the scribes, Pharisees, and the hypocrites did that are not pleasing to God. Have them describe the imminent judgment coming to each of them if they do not amend their ways. At the end of the report, the following conclusive statements are expected to come out.
   a. Group 1: (v. 13). We strive to make sure that no person is kept out of God's kingdom.
   b. Group 2: (v. 14). We strive to make sure that we do not take advantage of anyone because of our selfish agenda.
   c. Group 3: (v. 15). We strive to make sure that every person is led to eternal life in God's kingdom.
   d. Group 4: (vv. 16-22). We strive to live a life not only materially without coveting the things that are not ours but more importantly, spiritually.
   e. Group 5: (vv. 23-24). We strive to show compassion, mercy, and grace to anyone who needs it to please the compassionate, merciful, and gracious God.
   f. Group 6: (vv. 25-26). We strive to be pure inwardly.
   g. Group 7: (vv. 27-28). We strive to make the lives of the righteous not difficult than they already are.

E. Discovering the Biblical Truth

Ask: “How can the church confront the oppressive powers? (The Holy Spirit bids the church to unite with the people to confront the oppressive powers done by leaders, both religious and otherwise.)

F. Applying the Biblical Truth

The seven woes proclaimed by Jesus lead to sorrow and destruction. Change the behavior of the religious leaders so that the seven sins will become seven pathways to happiness. Expect varied answers from the class.
