And often for each other flows, The sympathizing tear.

Silent Meditation: Indigenous Peoples/Indigenous Cultural Communities (IP/ICC) refer to a group of people sharing common bonds of language, customs, traditions and other distinctive cultural traits, and who have, under claims of ownership since time immemorial, occupied, possessed and utilized a territory.

*Of the more than 75 million Filipinos, about 12 to 15 million are indigenous peoples, or about 17-22% of the total population in 1995.7 The population data regarding the indigenous peoples in the country vary according to who has conducted the research. The Episcopal Commission on Tribal Filipinos (ECTF) distinguishes approximately 40 ethno-linguistic groups with a population of about 6.5 to 7.5 million (10-11% of the country's population in 1995). The National Council of Churches in the Philippines (NCCP) estimates some 60 such groups. The National Commission on Indigenous Peoples (NCIP) identifies 95 distinct tribes, which includes the Islamic or Muslim groups, in 14 regions of the country with an estimated population between 12-15 million members (17-22% of the total population in 1995).8 But the detailed report and breakdown of this figure is not available from the NCIP office. From many places we have come with burning hearts and mind, to tell to all what we’ve seen or heard.

As God sees in our land and seas.

Chorus: We have seen the struggles of the poor.

We have seen our bond of unity.

We have heard God calling us today.

Pray for peace, work for justice and restore creations dignity.

Now creations groaning in travail

In need of love and dignity. People of the world.

Let us share our lives for to live is to care for the earth.

HIMNO A PAGDAYAW ‘For the Beauty of the Earth’ (HFJ p.233)

1. For the beauty of the earth, for the glory of the skies, for the love which from our birth over and around us lies;
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

2. For the beauty of each hour of the day and of the night, hill and vale, and tree and flower, sun and moon, and stars of light;
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

3. For the joy of ear and eye, for the heart and mind's delight, for the mystic harmony, linking sense to sound and sight;
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

4. For the joy of human love, brother, sister, parent, child, friends on earth and friends above, for all gentle thoughts and mild;
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

5. For thy church, that evermore lifteth holy hands above, offering up on every shore her pure sacrifice of love;
Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.
